What to expect: 3 steps to wellness

1. SCHEDULE

When you are ready, schedule your intake appointment by calling the CaringWorks Clinic. We provide a brief screening to determine if we can help with your mental health or substance use concerns and also to confirm your insurance coverage questions.

2. ASSESS

Your journey begins with an assessment where one of our licensed mental health professionals will ask you questions about your behaviors and moods. It's important to have an open conversation to ensure that you are directed to the right path of care.

3. TREAT

Once a decision has been made that outpatient services are the best option for you, we'll choose a treatment program specially designed to address your needs.
